

OxyCam is the new underwater camera for viewing fish inside cages or breeding tanks.

It can be immersed up to 50 meters and allows you to get high resolution video.

Oxycam is connected to an Oxybuoy (the water parameter monitoring system) designed to manage the video flow.

